Protect your workplace, your reputation and the environment.

If you're responsible for environmental health and safety at your company, you already know what a challenge OSHA and environmental compliance can be.

Let the environmental professionals at Safety-Kleen help shoulder that responsibility. Our compliance programs can be tailored to the unique needs of any Print Shop. Our practices provide the highest level of risk reduction in the industry. Plus, we take financial responsibility for the waste we manage, protecting you from future liability.

Sustainable choices that keep production running clean and more efficiently.

The Printing Industry needs sustainable choices. When you manage a shop, surprises are the last thing you need. Let the environmental professionals at Safety-Kleen show you how to reduce regulatory risk and keep your machines and parts clean.
